SAYINGS OF THE Holy Prophet (SAW)

Abu Huraira reported that al-Aqra' b. Habis saw Allah's Apostle (ﷺ) kissing Hasan. He said:

“I have ten children, but I have never kissed any one of them, whereupon Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said: He who does not show mercy (towards his children), no mercy would be shown to him”.

HAZRAT MIRZA GHULAM

SAYINGS OF THE Promised Messiah^(as)

Guidance and upbringing, in essence, is in the hands of God. Nagging incessantly and persisting on a matter beyond reasonable bounds, i.e., to prohibit and rebuke children on every little thing, demonstrates that we are, as if, the masters of guidance, and will be able to bring our children on the path that accords with our own will. This is a hidden form of associating partners with God. My community ought to refrain from such a practice.

Head Of Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Delivers Eid-Ul-Adha Sermon From Islamabad

“Supplicate with such devotion and cries that it shakes the pillars supporting the Throne of Allah”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

Press Releases June 9, 2025

The World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khali-fa (Caliph), His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, delivered the Eid-ul-Adha sermon on 6 June 2025 from the Mubarak Mosque in Islamabad, Tilford.

Across the world, millions of Ahmadi Muslims were able to listen live to the Eid Sermon of their Caliph and join in with the silent prayer led by their spiritual leader through the global television channel MTA International.

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

“Sacrifice’ does not simply mean sacrificing an animal, as done during Eid-ul-Adha. Rather, animal sacrifice is a symbolic act meant to teach us that lesser things must be sacrificed for greater purposes. It is a reminder that we, too, must be ready to sacrifice for our Creator—the Master of all. True understanding of sacrifice comes when a person recognises that they have one God, one Lord who is deserving of our worship...just as animals willingly lay down their necks before you, you must also be prepared to bow before Allah and offer every kind of sacrifice to fulfil His commands.”

Jalsa Salana Germany 2025 Concludes With Faith Inspiring Address

More than 46,000 people from all over the world attend three-day religious convention in Mendig

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

Press Releases September 5, 2025

On 31 August 2025, the World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa (Caliph), His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad concluded the 49th Annual Convention (Jalsa Salana) of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community in Germany with an inspirational address.

His Holiness presided over the concluding session virtually from the Masroor Hall in Islamabad, Tilford, whilst more than 46,000 people gathered at the Jalsa site in Mendig, Germany.

Beginning his address, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

“Today, the efforts of Ahmadi Muslims spread across the world to fulfil the pledge of allegiance to the Promised Messiah (peace be upon him) — by sacrificing their lives, wealth, and time for the propagation of Islam’s message — are clear proof that Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian (peace be upon him) is indeed the one whom Allah the Almighty sent in this era for the revival of Islam. Without the support and succour of Allah, it would not have been possible for people from every corner of the world to join his community. This is a special favour of Allah, because He Himself had promised that when people begin to forget the teachings of Islam, a time would come when God would raise a man who, with the help of Allah, would convey Islam’s message to the ends of the earth.” commands.

World Wide Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Highlights the Power of Obedience and the Role of Women in Times of Crisis

“Responding immediately to the call of a Prophet is an essential duty – in fact, it is one of the greatest signs of true faith”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

Press Releases September 6, 2025

During his weekly Friday Sermon on 5 September 2025, the Worldwide Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, His Holiness Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad once again narrated and elaborated upon various incidents in early Islam. In particular, His Holiness explained the circumstances of the Battle of Hunain and the honourable conduct of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) and his companions.

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

His Holiness narrated a story that shows the forgiving and loving nature of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) even towards his opponents. During the Battle of Hunain, a man named Shaybah ibn Uthman who had outwardly accepted Islam and was amongst the Muslim army, had secretly planned to assassinate the Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) during the chaos of fighting.

God revealed to the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) the man's hidden intentions. As the man drew close and drew with his drawn weapon, the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) reached out his hand, placed it on the man's chest, and prayed:

“O God, free him from satanic thoughts and remove the hatred from his heart.”

SAYINGS OF THE Khalifatul Masih^(aba)

“Furthermore, being educated will enable mothers to nurture and guide their children in a way that they develop into well-rounded and responsible citizens who contribute positively to their communities. So, even if there is a degree of divergence in the responsibilities of a man and a woman, Islam has established equal rights in terms of their value as human beings and their feelings and emotions.”

Desire for children and their proper upbringing

Delivered by

Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V^(aba)

Friday Sermon II July 14, 2017

Many men and women write to me requesting prayers for their unborn child and seek advice prayers for their expected child. At times, parents ask for guidance for their children who are getting closer to adolescence and adulthood. By the Grace of Allah, the majority of the Community think in this manner and they are focused on how they should undertake the tarbiyyat (moral training) of their children. This is a great blessing and favour of Allah the Almighty upon us Ahmadis that due to accepting the Promised Messiah (as), we think in this manner. In this age, where worldly desires have engulfed everyone, we are not only concerned about the worldly well-being of our children, rather, we also strive to care about the improvement of their faith.

As I mentioned, Allah the Exalted has taught us prayers in the Holy Qur'an to be blessed with virtuous offspring. This is the prayer of the Prophet Zachariah, 'My Lord, grant me from Thyself pure offspring; surely, Thou art the Hearer of prayer.' So, we should pray for virtuous progeny as well as act in a virtuous and pious manner, which are the characteristics of virtuous people and prophets. In order to safeguard our progeny from the evil influences of the time, it is necessary that both the husband and wife should act in a virtuous manner.
